

Daniel L. James, MBA

Finance & Accounting Consultant

Daniel James is President and Founder of James Business Solutions, LLC, a full service financial accounting and managerial consulting firm founded in 2005. JBS welcomes the opportunity to partner and grow with businesses and offer 15+ years of strong managerial experience in accounting process improvements, strategic growth planning, and financial statement analysis.

With a growing presence in the insurance, real estate, marketing, landscaping, fitness, entertainment, and retail industries, our goal is to legitimize your business, protect your assets and enjoy possible tax savings. Known for our unique blend of servant leadership, accountability, detail, and the ability to consistently deliver superior results, JBS will grow your business and earn your trust!

EDUCATION:

Associate of Arts – Edison Community College (1990) • Bachelor of Science - Accounting - Florida A&M University (1999) • Masters of Accounting - University of Phoenix Online (2005) • CPA Candidate

AFFILIATIONS:

Intuit Pro Advisor • National Notary Assoc. • 2005 Keiser Univ. Advisory Board Member

EXPERIENCE:

10/05—Present ACCOUNTING SERVICES / CONSULTING — James Business Solutions LLC

11/06—1/15 SR. FINANCIAL ANALYST (SUPERVISOR)—Citizens Property Insurance (4 promotions)

Key Responsibilities: To provide accounting supervision and expertise of the investment accounting and reporting cycle in the area of research, financial analysis, business decision support, monitoring, and accounting information systems for multiple business lines for a $15.3 billion investment portfolio and general ledger perspective. Assist the Financial Manager in the review and/or posting of 67 operating bank account reconciliations • Review and post accounts payable batches, vendor payments, and employee expense reports • Project lead in procurement solicitations • Coordinate all investment related cross training curriculum, seminars, site visits, special projects, and ad hoc requests as necessary.